Video and Film

1. Title (in italics)
2. Medium
3. Director
4. Other relevant detail re. writers, performers etc.
5. Distributor
6. Year
7. Other relevant detail re. physical characteristics e.g. size, length of film

If you are citing the relevance of a particular individual, begin with that person’s name and contribution.

This will look like this in a body of work:

Reading enables you to go deeper into your understanding of your research books are an integral part of this

By doing a literature review it shows that you have understood your reading and the breadth and depth of your research on a given topic.

Make sure you include everything as using someone else’s ideas and using them as your own is as much plagiarism as direct quotes so remember to reference!

Bibliography/Reading list

Drowning by Numbers. 1982. Film. FilmFour, 1982.

Make sure your numbers are in alphabetical order.

Your footnote should look like this for a film however don’t worry if do not know the performers these are optional.