Referencing ArtWork:

1. Name of Artist
2. Title of work (in italics)
4. Date
5. Publisher/Owner/Gallery etc

e.g.

This will look like this in a body of work:

Reading enables you to go deeper into your understanding of your research books are an integral part of this¹

By doing a literature review it shows that you have understood your reading and the breadth and depth of your research on a given topic.

Make sure you include everything as using someone’s else’s ideas and using them as your own is as much plagiarism as direct quotes so remember to reference!

Bibliography/Reading list

Make sure it is in you Bibliography in alphabetical order.

¹ Burne - Jones, E., The Love Song, Metropolitan Museum of Art.